

Rights, responsibilities, and respect

1. What rights do you think we have when we are online using digital environments?

2. What responsibilities do you think we have when we are online using digital environments?

3. How do you think we can show respect when we are online using digital environments?

